

Happening this week in the Arctic.

Top Stories

New king likely to keep strengthening Denmark's ties to Greenland and the Faroe Islands

Martin Breum

Like his royal predecessors, King Frederik X has long expressed his strong feelings ...

Read More »

Northvolt raises another 5 billion dollars

Lennart Håkansson, North Sweden Business

SKELLEFTEÅ Battery manufacturer Northvolt raises another USD 5 billion. It is the ...

Read More »

Gold producer acquires Nunavik-based exploration company

Kierstin Williams, Nunatsiaq News

An Ontario-based mining company has entered an agreement to acquire Nunavik-focused mineral exploration company Orford Mining Corp. Alamos Gold Inc. announced the deal, worth $16 ...

Read More »

More Stories

- New train shuttle between Piteå and Gothenburg
- Norway expands oil drilling, boosts production
- Rich Selection of Powerful Films From Across the Arctic Region
- Russia's Forces in the High North: Weakened by the War, Yet Still A Multidomain Threat

Announcements

- 🇳🇴 NIB starts the year with a NOK 2.5 billion Environmental Bond
- 🇳🇴 Equinor awarded 39 new production licences on the Norwegian continental shelf
- 🇳🇴 Eimskip celebrates 110th anniversary
- 🇸🇪 TrusTrace Completes \(U.S.\) \$24 Million Growth Investment Led by Circularity Capital to Drive Global Expansion
- 🇩🇰 AMSilk and 21st.BIO announce partnership to accelerate the production of advanced materials made from spider silk-based proteins

ARCTIC BUSINESS
JOURNAL
Brought to you by ArcticToday

SUBSCRIBE